SAD DEATH OF RUTH LOWSTUTTER

Ruth, the 13 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Lowstutter died at 5 o'clock last evening at her home, 130 E. Schoonmaker avenue after a protracted illness of heart trouble extending over a period of three years. She had been confined to her bed for almost 5 weeks and although very sick, her death came as a terrible shock to her family and many friends and acquaintances. Ruth was very popular among her playmates and was a regular attendant of the Methodist Sunday school.

There are four other children remaining: Margaret, George, William and Mark. The funeral services will be held on Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock, interment to be in Monongahela cemetery later.

SPECIAL COUNCIL MEETING TONIGHT

A special meeting of council has been called for tonight in order to put the final touches on the new ordinance that is destined to, in a measure, do away with many of these house to house peddlers who are so thick on our streets at this time. Since the old ordinance has been proved illegal, the ordinance officer has been a little at loss as just how to act in this matter.

Complaints have been heard from several merchants concerning these transient venders, and the special meeting has been ordered by President Stevens on this account. The ordinance will receive its third and final reading this evening and will be placed on the ordinance books as soon after as possible. There is no other business to be transacted at the meeting.

E. L. Marker is visiting in Pittsburgh this afternoon.

J. J. Cushing and Commission are Busy

J. J. Cushing, a member of the Commission on compensation for industrial accidents, recently appointed by Governor Tener, will leave Sunday for Washington, D. C, where the second meeting of the Commission will be held. He will leave Pittsburgh Sunday evening with the western members and the body will convene for business Monday March 4, in the parlors of the Raleigh hotel. Monday and if necessary, Tuesday will be taken up with their work. The last legislature appropriated $18,000 to be used in framing an employer's liability bill, and the appointment of this commission by Governor Tener is the beginning of a work which will no doubt prove most beneficial. The Governor is well pleased with the progress already made, and hopes to see a most comprehensive, practical and judicial document ready for presentation at the next meeting of the Legislature.

Star Theatre

A good bill is running this week at the Star and patrons of this popular vaudeville house are assured of a pleasant evening's entertainment. The Bellasanders in a novelty balancing and juggling act are very good. Many difficult feats are performed by this pair of artists. Ed Begley, the man that looks like Taft, has an entertaining line of talk and is certainly a good imitation of our President. Mlle. DeLores and her animal impersonators in an immense scenic production "Monkey Shines" offer something entirely new and the act was a big feature of last night's show. The bill closed with an excellent picture shown on the Starograph daylight curtain.

Sues for Husband's Death

Mrs. Gertrude Harvey of Natrona has entered in the Washington county courts, a suit to recover $10,000 damages from Conrad Compton of Donora for the death of her husband, Frank G. Harvey, who died the 5th of last October from injuries sustained by falling from a ladder which was run into, it is alleged, by Compton while driving his automobile at a high speed. When the accident happened Harvey was on the ladder painting the Fifteenth street bridge at McKeesport, the foot of the ladder, it is said, rested on the roadway.

Mrs. George Slagle has returned to her home in Youngstown after a visit here with relatives.

Do you use Hydrogen Peroxide?

The American market is flooded with different makes of Hydrogen Peroxide, sold at all sorts of prices The Parke, Davis & Co. brand has been proved to be 30 per cent stronger than others on the market today. At the end of nine months it loses in strength only .06 per cent. The others lose from 1 to 64 40 per cent It certainly does not benefit a man who purchases Peroxide at a low price, for he has little more than ordinary water in the bottle after the lapse of three or four months. We have on our shelves some cheap stuff, and then we have the best—Parke, Davis & Co.'s.

Nabbed in McKeesport Wanted Here

Yesterday afternoon in McKeesport William McDonough who is wanted here on a larceny charge was captured by the police of that place and lodged in the jail there on a similar charge also prefered by the manager of a department store. McDonough had entered the store one night early this week and had taken several hundreds of dollars worth of goods. Last May, McDonough came to Monessen looking for employment and while on his way down Donner avenue happened to stop in at Feldman's, he says, to look for a place to board. He went upstairs and finding no one at home took several rings, a watch, a solid gold necklace and other articles valued at almost $300. The local police were unable to find any trace of him until the other day when word was received from McKeesport that the man had been apprehended there. He will be given a trial in Allegheny county and after serving his sentence for the McKeesport robbery will probably be haled before the court at Greensburgh for the charge resting against him here.

DR. ARMSTRONG'S LECTURE PLEASING

Dr. Armstrong's lecture last night in the high school auditorium on "Hamlet," was a treat for all admirers of Shakespearian work. The Doctor showed himself to have a thorough and well-trained knowledge of his subject, which was handled in a most masterful and intellectual manner. Dr. Armstrong, who is a member of the facutly of the University of West Virginia and has delivered a number of lectures here this winter, all being well received, but last night's "Hamlet" was the crowning number in the series so far. This evening he will deliver another lecture on "The Love of Books," and none who are interested at all in progressive literary or educational work should miss hearing this, one of his best talks.

Delivered Good Lecture

Mr. O'Dwyer of Pittsburgh, delivered a very interesting and highly educational talk to the students at the High school, yesterday afternoon, on the subject of "Work for the Blind." Mr. O'Dwyer is blind himself, and a good collection was taken up for his benefit.

It was expected that the decisions would be handed down on the first day of the court's sitting, but the message above quoted, is authentic

BELLE VERNON GIRL GETS $500 VERDICT

Miss Hazel Reeves of Belle Vernon has brought suit against the Pennsylvania railroad in the Washington, Pa. court, for damages, for personal injuries alleged to have been received while a passenger aboard a train June 1, 1910. Miss Reeves was a student at the California Normal college at the time and on that morning after she had entered the car at Speers, the train started and suddenly stopped. and as a consequence the young lady, it is stated, was thrown violently against the window and the seatback in front of her The girl's arm was badly injured and the glass in the window broken. She was compelled to quit school and the doctor bill is placed at about $500. It is said the arm is permanently disabled. The suit is brought by the girl's mother, as she is under age. Miss Reeves is a sister of Walter Reeves, well-known in Monessen, at one time associated with the Westmoreland Lumber company.

Later she was awarded damages to the amount of $500 for her injuries. Mrs. Miranda Reeves, mother of the girl was awarded damages amounting to $63.60. The Railroad Co., fought the case to the last ditch but were unable to gain any better decision than the above.

The Long Winded Speaker

Before real hot weather we'll have in Westmoreland county, conventions and meetings of varied natures, if we are to judge from prospective schedules, and a little later on, before the real hot weather merges into real cold weather, we'll have one of the most intensely interesting and heated political campaigns in the history of the country.

Right now it is fitting to briefly review the rights, privileges and injustices practiced by public speakers on occasions like this. There are brakes for railroad trains, trolley cars, automobiles and the like, but to our knowledge, there has never yet been invented a successful brake for the "wordy man with little to say." The injustice is a rank one and of long standing. Almost invariably the speaker whom the people most want to hear is, mostly from a sense of self-modesty, last to be heard and the one of lesser experience or worth being introduced first has so much to say with so litlte in it, and encroaches more and more on his successor's time, that the real favorite is frequently crowded so far back on the time of the program that the people do not get to hear half of the good things he may have to tell them.

Now it seems logical to place the responsibility of a remedy with the chairman of public meetings, and declare it his duty to apply the "brake" at the proper time, to the mouths of the "wordy" speaker having a place on the program.

The practice of stealing the "talking time" of the speaker who is to follow is common and unblushing, some times from a sense of over-estimation-of self and at others, just plain thoughtlessness or forgetfulness, and hence we insist that every man and every woman figuring in the role of presiding officer should be prepared and capable of administering a chairman's or a chairlady's duties fairly, impartially and with an iron determination. That is, stop a speaker when his time is out, and present the next talker to the waiting audience.

With many public speakers time is not included in the prohibitory clause of the sacred commandment, "Thou shalt not steal," and so the petty larceny is perpetuated from year to year indefinitely.

Every one who has sat through a scheduled program, especially at a political meeting, knows how it is. The train of oratory will be started on time and the first speaker over reaches his twenty minute allotment and reaches over twenty minutes on "the other fellow's" time, and does it without a qualem or a quaver, he is not one bit conscience pricked, for he reasons, "Oh, well, he'll do the same, so what's the odds."

The hour is late, the last and some times the best speaker is introduced, and very frequently his talk falls on few ears as the audience is on the wing and his words are directed to empty seats. This conscienceless practice will, no doubt, continue until convention customs are changed and the policy is adopted of requiring presiding officers to "put on brakes" at just the right time, and not allow one speaker topurloin his successor's talking time.

A Race for Supremacy

Nothing comes quite as near crowding politics to the background as does baseball, but this year the strennousness atteached to both will place them more nearly on a par than in ordinary years. However with the baseball folk on the move to the Spring practice grounds and a little later on the start on the summer's contest and the tug of war for the lead in the pennant race will give the game of manly sports the lead in the early part of the season, but after June and the results of the nominating conventions are known in the presidential race the interest will shift and politics will have the ear of the American people. Base ball will not be less attractive, but politics will be more so from the fact that all attention will be directed by all, even the baseballists themseles, toward the selection of a governmental head to rule the destinies of our land for four years to come. Baseball has come to be recognized as the leading and most to be commended of the manly sports of our country, and while that be true, the choosing of a president or a people's leader, one year in every four is entitled to be recognized above every other subject aside from our religious affiliations and beliefs, which with our forefathers, even, were ever paramount to polities.

Facts And Fiction

Experiences of Monessen Citizens Are Easily Proven to be Facts

The most superficial investigation will prove that the following statement from a resident of Monessen is true. Read it and compare evidence from Monessen people with testimony of strangers living so far away you cannot investigate the facts of the case. Many more citizens of Monessen will endorse Doan'o Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor, 452 McKee avenue, Monessen, Pa., says: "I think that the change of drinking water when I moved here was the cause of my kidney trouble. The kidney secretions became irregular in passage and caused me annoyance. I was subject to dizzy spells, could not sleep well and was very nervous. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I got a box from the Hirsch Drug Co. and commenced their use. They have greatly helped me and have lived up to all the claims made for them."

HELPFUL HINTS ON HAIR HEALTH

Scalp and Hair Troubles Generally Caused by Carelessness

Dandruff is a contagious disease caused by a microbe which also produces baldness. Never use a comb or brush belonging to some one else. No matter how cleanly the owner may be, these articles may be infected with microbes, which will infect your scalp. It is far easier to catch hair microbes than it is to get rid of them and a single stroke of an infected comb or brush may well lead to baldness. Never try on anybody else's hat. Many a hat-band is a resting place for microbes.

If you happen to be troubled with dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair or baldness, we have a remedy which we believe will completely relieve these troubles. We are so sure of this that we offer it to you with the understanding that it will cost you nothing for the trial if it does not produce the results we claim. This remedy is called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We honestly believe it to be the most scientific remedy for scalp and hair troubles, and we know of nothing else that equals it for effectiveness, because of the result it has produced in thousands of cases.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is devised to banish dandruff, restore natural color when its loss has been brought about by disease, and make the hair naturally silky, soft and glossy. It does this because it stimulates the hair follicles, destroys the germ matter, and brings about a free, healthy circulation of blood, which nourishes the hair roots, causing them to tighten and grow new hair. We want everybody who has any trouble with hair or scalp to know that we think that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is the best hair tonic and restorative in existence, and no one should scoff at or doubt this statement until they have put our claims to a fair test, with the understanding that they pay us nothing for the remedy if it does not give full and complete satisfaction in every particular. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Monessen only at our store—The Rexall Store. Craigs' Drug Store.

Comedy of Corn.

"Say, you know how fastidious Briggs is?"

"Yes."

"Well, he gets wild whenever the Maitland girl, she's his fiancee, eats corn off the cob She found out how he felt about it, and the other evening at dinner at the club she tried to cut the corn from the cob Briggs noticed this and smiled approvingly, but just then her knife slipped, the cob popped nimbly onto Briggs' shirtbosom, the plate skidded, the gravy bowl went over and all the cut off kernels showered themselves dangerously near the gorgeous corsage of that very stout Mrs. Singleton Mink."

"And what did Briggs do?"

"Say, Briggs was game. He called the waiter, handed him the cob, and said, 'Francois, this corn popped from the plate just now. I didn't order popcorn. Bring the other sort, Francois, and make it cobless, please.'"

Spiritism Said to Be Demonism.

A most interesting little brochure has recently come off the press setting forth with Bible proofs that the communications received by and through Spiritist Mediums is of Demon origin. The writer traces his subject through the Scriptures from the time when certain of the holy angels became disobedient. He proves from the Scriptures that these fallen spirits personate the human dead, with whose past history, spirits, though invisible are thoroughly acquainted He shows that they also frequently personate the Creator and the Redeemer, commanding their deceived dupes to pray, do penance, etc This, however, is merely to lead them on and to bring them more thoroughly under demoniacal control Sometimes by breaking down the natural barrier, the human will, they possess their victim, and rule him more or less to his ruin—frequently sending such to the mad-house. Numerous illustrations, Scriptural and otherwise are given The price of the little book is but ten cents, it should be in the hands of all interested in Spiritism or who have friends interested therein Enclose five two-cent stamps to the Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks street Brooklyn, N. "Tabernacle Shadows of the Better Sacrifices"

This little Book is not for the ordinary reader, but those [illegible] it is what every advanced Bible Student and earnest Christian should possess and study thoroughly. It costs but Ten Cents, is illustrated and draws its lessons on the higher life from the types and shadows of Israel's typical Atonement Day and other sacrifices Surely every earnest Christian should have this little book and find in it a mine of spiritual wealth, health and refreshment Order it now from the Bible and Tract Society, 17 Hicks street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

News Notes of Society

Miss Irene Jenkins entertained a large number of friends on last Monday evening, at her home on Schoonmaker avenue. Many amusing games were played and music for the evening was furnished by Thomas Underwood. A dainty lunch was served to the guests after which they departed wishing her many happy returns of the day. Those present were: Margaret McLanahan, Winona McGill, Anna McClain, May Lloyd, Catherine Kearney, Catherine Robins, Jennie Cook, Janet Hutchison, Berneil Davis, Agnes Ewing, Catherine Nixon, Frances Robins and Genevieve Hanger of Charleroi and William and Daniel Stevens, Ernest Leonard, Richard Brown, George McGill, Glenn Dick, Harry Robins, Harold Holden, John Beall, William Gray, Samuel Beall, Martin Hannan, John, William and Edgar Jenkins, Kenneth Hutchison, Jack Reed, Thomas Underwood and Mr. and Mrs. Darrah.

The First street hill "500" club was very pleasantly entertained last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cowan on Oneida street. A large attendance of the members was present and the evening was very delightfully passed in playing "500". A delightful lunch was served by the hostess.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church met yesterday afternoon in the parlors of the church and listened to a very interesting talk by Miss Barr of Pittsburgh who is a member of the Board of Home Missions. A gratifying attendance was present and a delightful lunch was served by the ladies in charge of the meeting.

Profit in Seaweed.

The same species of seaweed used in Japan for the manufacture of kanten exists in inexhaustible abundance on our Pacific coast and at numerous places along the Atlantic coast, while related species, of equal value, are abundant almost everywhere in temperate waters. In this country the product commands high prices, so that the manufacture of seaweed insinglass ought to prove a highly remunerative industry.

OLD FOLKS

Can Live Longer, Doctor Says

"One reason old people do not live to be older," says a famous physician, "is because they do not keep up their interest in life. They ought not to 'let go.'"

But when they are weakened through poor appetite and loss of sleep, you can't expect them to be so much interested in current events.

Let them first regain most of their former vigor, by using Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation, on which so many elderly people depend for good health.

According to F. R. Schoen, Justice of the Peace, Elk Mountain, Wyo., his neighbor, Chad. T. Bourk, 84 years old, was very sick and ready to give up, but Vinol put him on his feet again and now he says: "Nothing ever helped me like Vinol —I could not do without it.

Vinol is sure to do you good if you are run down and weak—we guarantee this, and will pay back your money if you are not satisfied. Hirsch Drug Co., Monessen, Pa.

Never Passed on Pictures

A great deal of comment was aroused locally last December by the exhibition here of the Beulah Binford pictures and in Monongahela the matter was taken up a little further and a letter of inquiry as to who constituted the National Board of Censors that had passed favorably on the pictures, was sent to John Collier, the Educational secretary by I. G. Sanders General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Monongahela.

In reply to Mr. Sanders inquiry, Mr. Collier stated that the film was submitted to the board and absoultely condemned, not so much because of the fact that the picture itself was particularly objectionabe but because of the morbid appeal of the title He went on to say that the film had been anonymously produced and that is the only way it was able to get into the market at all. The National Board of Censors has no power over the unknown and irresponsible producers of this film, their jurisdiction being only over the regular manufacturers who produce the majority of the pictures that are shown in this country.

Nature's Beauty Hidden.
